

Board of Health Member of the Year

Lowell Haugen
Sauk County Board of Health

Lowell is a retired high school chemistry teacher. He has lived in Wisconsin for many years, but his heart remains in Minnesota. He is of Norwegian descent and very proud of his heritage. Lowell was raised on a farm in Minnesota where he returns to frequently to assist his family members. He loves working with the land and produces vegetables in a large vegetable garden from which he shares his vegetables at local assisted living complexes.

Lowell has given of himself throughout his life. He will be remembered by everyone for his acute sense of fairness. He is not afraid to question any process or individual if he believes that someone was treated unjustly.

Many people throughout the state will remember Lowell for his trade mark Norwegian sweaters, his dedication to public health and commitment to the community where he resides. Lowell has supported public health through his involvement on the public health board and, regional and state WALDAB associations. Lowell has been a member of the Sauk County Board and Public Health Committee since 1996. He became a member of the state WALHDAB board in 1997.
